BOOK SYNOPSIS

Charles the Bold in Italy, 1467-1477 is the definitive study of the last reigning Duke of Burgundys relations with the Italian states. Charless dealings with Italy have been studied previously, but this book—bolstered by Richard Walshs extensive research in European archives—is by far the most comprehensive examination of Charles the Bolds military, diplomatic, and economic relations with the subcontinent. Charles the Bold in Italy will be indispensable to scholars of French and Italian history and diplomacy.
